QUANTA STATEMENT ON AQUILA PRELIMINARY PROXY

HOUSTON - APRIL 3, 2002 - Quanta Services, Inc. (NYSE:PWR), a leading provider of specialized contracting services to the electric power, gas, telecommunications and cable television industries, today issued the following statement commenting on Aquila Inc.'s (NYSE:ILA) preliminary proxy statement.

John R. Colson, chief executive officer of Quanta, said, "Aquila's preliminary proxy offers nothing new to Quanta's other stockholders. As to their suggestion that they would put the Company up for sale, they have actually been an impediment to this course of action in the past. As previously announced, Quanta's Board has authorized its financial advisors to help Quanta evaluate all potential options for enhancing stockholder value. We note that in Aquila's proxy, they admit that they intend to use Quanta's cash to achieve their own accounting goals."

Quanta Services, Inc. is a leading provider of specialized contracting services, delivering end-to-end network solutions for electric power, gas, telecommunications and cable television industries. The company's comprehensive services include designing, installing, repairing and maintaining network infrastructure nationwide.

This press release contains various forward-looking statements and information, including management's expectations of the impact of new branding and marketing initiatives. Although the company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable; it can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to have been correct. Such statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions including, among other matters, future growth in the electric utility and telecommunications outsourcing industry, and the ability of Quanta to complete acquisitions and to effectively integrate the operations of acquired companies, as well as general risks related to the industries in which Quanta operates. Should one or more of these risks materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those expected. For a discussion of the risks, investors are urged to refer to the Company's reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
