EXPLANATORY NOTE

Quanta Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Quanta Services"), is filing the materials contained in this Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 10, 2002 in connection with the solicitation of proxies for electing the board of directors of Quanta Services at the 2002 annual meeting of Quanta Services' stockholders.

May 9, 2002

Dear Quanta Stockholder:

As we quickly approach Quanta's annual meeting on May 23, 2002, we want to thank those of you who have already voted for Quanta's current Board of Directors, and encourage those of you who haven't voted to do so now. Your vote is critical to ensuring that Aquila doesn't steal Quanta without offering you anything.

YOUR VOTE IS CRUCIAL - PLEASE VOTE YOUR WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

QUANTA DELIVERS STRONG FIRST QUARTER RESULTS FOR STOCKHOLDERS

Contrary to Aquila's disingenuous assertions, Quanta continues to perform well in a challenging environment. On May 8, 2002, Quanta announced strong first quarter results, including:

- >> Revenues of $449.2 million;
- >> EBITDA of $43.8 million (before proxy costs) or $0.56 per diluted share;
- >> Net income of $12.8 million (before proxy costs) or $0.17 per share;
- >> Operating cash flow of $68.4 million; and
- >> A $38.5 million reduction in debt.

AQUILA'S OWN PERFORMANCE RAISES QUESTIONS

Aquila has performed poorly over the past quarter and in recent weeks. IN JUST THE LAST THREE WEEKS, AQUILA'S STOCK HAS LOST 33% OF ITS VALUE.

Just days ago, Aquila's first quarter results demonstrated that it is in serious financial trouble. Since January 1, 2002, three major rating agencies have issued negative reports on Aquila's credit capacity. Here are the facts:

- o On April 30, 2002, Aquila was placed on S&P's Credit Watch with a negative outlook and its stock dropped 6.2%;
- o On April 29, 2002, Aquila's stock dropped $5.15 or 23.15% to a new 52-week low;
- o On April 26, 2002, Aquila was given a negative ratings outlook by Moody's Investor Service;
- o On April 19, 2002, Aquila announced that its 2002 first quarter earnings would be 54% less than its 2001 first quarter results;
- o On February 27, 2002, Aquila was downgraded by Fitch Rating Service to BBB-, just above junk bond status; and
- o Aquila is engaged in a dispute with Chubb over their agreement to collateralize $570 million worth of surety bonds.

AQUILA HAS A HISTORY OF ABUSING MINORITY STOCKHOLDERS

Under the Green brothers' leadership, Aquila, Inc., has a legacy of promoting their own interests at the expense of minority stockholders' rights. Consider the following:

1

- o April 1999: Aquila squeezes out the minority in its controlled subsidiary, Aquila Gas Pipeline (AGP) at a lowball price and over the objections of a special committee of AGP directors.(1)
SELL TO SHAREHOLDERS AT $15.00 AND BUY BACK AT $8.32 (-45%)(2)
RESULT: STEEP LOSSES FOR MINORITY INVESTORS
- o January 2002: Without bothering to install independent directors to approve the transaction, Aquila squeezed out minority stockholders in its highest growth subsidiary to take advantage of a weak market. Aquila, including both of the Green brothers, was sued by minority investors.(3)
SELL TO SHAREHOLDERS AT $24.00 AND BUY BACK AT $18.21 (-24%)(4)
RESULT: STEEP LOSSES FOR MINORITY INVESTORS

WHEN YOU VOTE, CONSIDER THE SUPPORT
OF SOME OF OUR LARGEST STOCKHOLDERS

- o Aquila "hasn't shown us anything so far with as great a return for shareholders as we expect from present management, which has 20 years experience."
- Michael Wilson, Holt-Smith & Yates Advisors, May 3, 20025

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT.
WE URGE YOU TO VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY.

Your Board needs your support and your vote. If you do not return your signed and dated WHITE PROXY CARD, your vote will NOT be counted for Quanta's board and you will NOT be supporting Quanta management.

We urge you to DISCARD any materials you receive from Aquila, including their Gold proxy card. Your vote for Quanta's director nominees at our May 23, 2002 annual meeting is vitally important to Quanta and the value of your investment. If you have any questions about this process, you can call MacKenzie Partners, Inc., our proxy solicitor, toll free at 800-322-2885, or us at 713-629-7600. We hope that we will be able to count on your support.

Very truly yours,

Quanta Services, Inc. has filed a proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to Quanta's solicitation of proxies from its stockholders with respect to the Quanta Services, Inc. 2002 annual meeting of stockholders. QUANTA SERVICES, INC. ADVISES SECURITY HOLDERS TO READ ITS PROXY STATEMENT IN ITS ENTIRETY, BECAUSE IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Quanta's proxy statement and other relevant documents are available for free at www.sec.gov. You may also obtain a free copy of Quanta's proxy statement by writing to Quanta Services, Inc. at 1360 Post Oak Boulevard, Suite 2100, Houston, Texas 77056 or by contacting MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll free at 1-800-322-2885. Detailed information regarding the names, affiliation and interests of individuals who may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies of Quanta's stockholders is available in the proxy statement filed by Quanta with the SEC.

This letter contains various forward-looking statements and information, including management's expectations regarding the future performance of Quanta. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, it can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to have been correct. Such statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions including, among other matters, future growth in the electric utility and telecommunications outsourcing industry and the ability of Quanta to complete acquisitions and to effectively integrate the operations of acquired companies, and uncertainties relating to Aquila's hostile proxy fight for the Company, as well as general risks related to the industries in which Quanta, its customers and its suppliers operate. Should one or more of these risks materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those expected. For a discussion of the risks, investors are urged to refer to the Company's reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

3

S&P, MOODY'S AND FITCH ALL GAVE AQUILA A THUMBS DOWN

>> On April 30, 2002, Aquila was placed on S&P's Credit Watch with a negative outlook;

"On balance, [the Cogentrix transaction] has a greater potential to lower the company's overall credit quality."

- Standard & Poor's Credit Wire, April 30, 2002(1)

>> On April 26, 2002, Aquila was given a negative ratings outlook by Moody's Investor Service;

"The negative outlook reflects Moody's concerns about declining earnings*, reduced external credit available to Aquila Merchant Services partially balanced by an increase in resources from Aquila, Inc., and general sector weakness for some of the company's principal lines of business, particularly its energy trading operations."

- Moody's Investor Service, April 26, 2002(1)

>> On February 27, 2002, Aquila was downgraded by Fitch Rating Service to BBB-, just above junk bond status

"The rating downgrades primarily reflect the increasing dependence upon cash flows derived from the merchant energy business, housed in subsidiary Aquila, and take into consideration Aquila's reliance on UCU [UtiliCorp, now Aquila] for funding, the ongoing integral growth of Aquila's business, and high capital expenditures related to merchant generation and gas storage."

- Fitch Rating Service, February 27, 2002(1)

SHOULDN'T YOU?

VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY.

*On April 19, 2002, Aquila announced that its 2002 first quarter earnings would be 54% less than its 2001 first quarter results.
